Lent is a fitting time for self-denial; we would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our own poverty. Let us not forget that real poverty hurts: no self-denial is real without this dimension of penance. I distrust a charity that costs nothing and does not hurt.

POPE FRANCIS

MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Parish Council, May 14, 2019

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

Along the WAY

This past week, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica hosted a Lenten talk by a well-known expert on the theology of religious exorcisms and demonology, Adam Blai. There was in attendance over 130 persons. In no uncertain terms, the speaker emphasized the teachings of the Catholic Church: Satan is real and his cohort of demons prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. He strongly warned the group about the dangers of dabbling with the occult, for example: involvement in wicca, fortune telling, ouiji boards, etc.

It is important to make use of the gifts that our Catholic faith gives us: Sunday Mass, frequent confession, having a Crucifix predominantly displayed in your home, and holy water. These are realities that the devil abhors because they are tremendous sources of grace, goodness, love, and forgiveness that comes from Christ Jesus, Our Lord.

Try to put into your daily prayer the Prayer of St. Michael the Archangel to defend you in your battle and your spiritual warfare against evil, hate, and the satanic. A good way to go, as we go along the Way. . .

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Guest speaker Adam Blai addressing over 130 participants on Wednesday, March 6.

The Catholic Faith: Our Best Defense Against the Demonic Summary notes from Adam Blai’s talk

- 1. God is in charge - While the devil and demons exist, the devil’s activity is not the center of the story. God is. Sometimes God allows us to be tempted by the devil to encourage us to mature in our faith.
- 2. Obedience to God’s law protects us from the demonic - Disobedience to the First Commandment: I am the LORD your God, you shall have no other gods before me, is a common trait among possessed individuals. Seeking comfort, information and power (my will be done, rather than Thy will be done), people turn to the occult, breaking their friendship with God. Necromancy, the practice of communicating with the dead, while popular in our media, is one of the few practices cited as an abomination to the Lord in the Bible (cf. Deut. 18:12). No angel, saint, or soul in purgatory striving for eternal life with God, would participate in it.
- 3. Jesus’ authority has been given to his apostles and the Catholic Church. Following Pentecost, the apostles received staggering authority over unclean spirits. This authority has been passed on to the Bishops. Regular participation in the Sacrament of Confession stops demonic problems before they set in; the Sacrament closes doors before they are opened wide, and restores our true relationship with God. In the Eucharist, Jesus makes himself present to us, giving us everything we need.

For more information, check out Adam Blai’s book, The Exorcism Files - True Stories of Demonic Possession, available through the local public library.

Serving those in need
in the Holy Land

It is vital that we support Christians living in the Holy Land, in order to maintain a Christian presence in the very land made holy by the life, death and Resurrection of Jesus. Learn more at www.MyFranciscan.org and click "Pontifical Good Friday."

Diocese of Youngstown ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

Caring for one another through our Ministries

Help us reach our parish goal of $81,000.00 by donating today

*"The Father will honor
whoever serves me."
- John 12:26*

Facing death, Jesus said in today's Gospel, "I am troubled now. Yet what should I say? "Father, save me from this hour"? But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour" (John 12:27).

When was the last time you had to face something difficult? Christ's perspective sheds new light on life's trials: "If [a grain of wheat] dies, it produces much fruit" (John 12:24-25).

As each of us follows Christ, we face trials. Our parish, like Christ, desires that our trials bear much fruit. Our Annual Diocesan Appeal is a time when we ask for your help. There is a sacrifice behind each gift: a dying to the other possibilities one might have used the money, time, or resource for. As you give, you can participate in Christ's sacrifice. You honor us with your gift, and we honor you, as we honor Christ's sacrifice for us! In advance, we thank you for helping us bear fruit and for all the souls entrusted to us. God bless you!
