Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless, and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us, and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments, we might not despair, nor become despondent, but with great confidence, submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy Itself. Amen.

MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the WAY

It is my sincere wish that all of you appreciated this past Holy Week and Easter Sunday 2024. The weather itself was kind to us - with some rays of sunshine that pointed to the Church's Alleluias as believers throughout the world proclaimed that Christ is risen from the dead! He is truly risen, Alleluia!! I hope that your families renewed themselves in their faith in Christ as risen from the dead, promising eternal life. May His joy be with you as you journey in our world today. Alleluia!

There are many people whose contributions enriched the Basilica's Liturgies during Holy Week and Easter Sunday. Thank you to the members of our choir, our acolytes and servers, our lectors and Extraordinary Ministers, ushers, decorators . . . There are so many people I know I have missed some. The making of St. Anthony Easter Bread is always a hit for the community. It goes so very well on the family table. Thank you to the parishioners at St. Anthony Church who worked tirelessly to keep up with the demand, and to Ernie for your leadership. The passing out of Easter candy for the children after the Easter Masses is a very nice touch for our youth - the sweetness of the Risen Christ! We have much to be thankful for!

Knowing you as a people with a lively Faith, the Church's observance of this Easter season will continue to feed you with a greater love for one another - family and friends - and most of all, your love of God, as we go Along the Way.

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Excerpts from John Paul II's Homily on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 22, 2001

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; for his mercy endures for ever!" (Ps 117: 1).

Let us make our own the Psalmist's exclamation which we sang in the Responsorial Psalm: the Lord's mercy endures for ever! In order to understand thoroughly the truth of these words, let us be led by the liturgy to the heart of the event of salvation, which unites Christ's Death and Resurrection with our lives and with the world's history. This miracle of mercy has radically changed humanity's destiny. It is a miracle in which is unfolded the fullness of the love of the Father who, for our redemption, does not even draw back before the sacrifice of his Only-begotten Son.

. . . The Cross, even after the Resurrection of the Son of God, "speaks and never ceases to speak of God the Father, who is absolutely faithful to his eternal love for man.... Believing in this love means believing in mercy (Dives in misericordia, n. 7).

Let us thank the Lord for his love, which is stronger than death and sin. It is revealed and put into practice as mercy in our daily lives, and prompts every person in turn to have "mercy" towards the Crucified One. Is not loving God and loving one's neighbour and even one's "enemies", after Jesus' example, the programme of life of every baptized person and of the whole Church? . . .

The Heart of Christ! His "Sacred Heart" has given men everything: redemption, salvation, sanctification. St Faustina Kowalska saw coming from this Heart that was overflowing with generous love, two rays of light which illuminated the world. "The two rays", according to what Jesus himself told her, "represent the blood and the water" (Diary, p. 132). The blood recalls the sacrifice of Golgotha and the mystery of the Eucharist; the water, according to the rich symbolism of the Evangelist John, makes us think of Baptism and the Gift of the Holy Spirit (cf. Jn 3: 5; 4: 14).

Through the mystery of this wounded heart, the restorative tide of God's merciful love continues to spread over the men and women of our time. Here alone can those who long for true and lasting happiness find its secret.

"Jesus, I trust in you". This prayer, dear to so many of the devout, clearly expresses the attitude with which we too would like to abandon ourselves trustfully in your hands, O Lord, our only Saviour.

You are burning with the desire to be loved and those in tune with the sentiments of your heart learn how to build the new civilization of love. A simple act of abandonment is enough to overcome the barriers of darkness and sorrow, of doubt and desperation. The rays of your divine mercy restore hope, in a special way, to those who feel overwhelmed by the burden of sin.

Funeral Mass Traditions

The Catholic Church has many beautiful traditions that have developed over the centuries. Our Lady of Mt. Carmel - St. Anthony of Padua Parish seeks to preserve and utilize many of these wonderful customs and traditions. One of these traditions is the optional use of Black Vestments for All Soul's Day, Funeral Masses, and Masses for the Dead. The parish is making available the option of using either White, Purple, or Black Vestments upon request for Funeral Masses and Masses for the Dead. Black Vestments are a wonderful way to remember our mortality and imperfection, while we mourn the loss of loved ones. In fact, this is why wearing black to funerals by the laity is traditionally commonplace in Europe and the United States. Similarly, the Black Vestments remind us to pray for our loved ones, that they may rest in peace.

God's School of Trust | Divine Mercy | Episode 1

The sin of our first parents, Adam and Eve, has distorted the way we see God. But God hasn't given up on us. In fact, he has tirelessly worked to heal our distorted image of him through his "School of Trust," beginning with his Chosen People in the Old Testament.

Caring for one another through our Ministries

Help us reach our parish goal of $81,000.00 by donating today!

“As the Father has sent me,
so I send you.”

JOHN 20:21

Jesus did not waste time. While the disciples were still reeling with amazement at his resurrection, Jesus introduced them to their mission: “As the Father has sent me, so I send you” (John 20:21).

The Father sent Jesus into our world to bring hope. On this Divine Mercy Sunday, God’s mercy is the greatest hope our broken world has ever known.

We have been sent, and it is our job to spread the message. In the coming days, our neighbors need to see our Resurrection joy and be moved by our witness so that they wonder, “Where do they get it?” The answer is, “Jesus.” Please support our Annual Diocesan Appeal, so that we can make more people curious about Jesus-until His Kingdom comes again in glory. May He bless you and help you know Divine Mercy like never before.
