MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In response to our Baptismal call, we are a People of God who witness to Christ in the world. We commit ourselves to remain faithful to the Magisterium of the Catholic Church and our call to the New Evangelization with the Blessed Virgin Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, and St. Anthony of Padua as our patrons.

While primarily utilizing our rich Italian heritage, we integrate and embrace other cultural traditions as we minister to the community through prayer, catechesis, and stewardship by celebrating the Sacraments, proclaiming the Gospel, and performing the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy with care and compassion for all.

Along the WAY

After 44 years of serving the Diocese of Youngstown as a canon lawyer, Bishop Bonnar has accepted my request to complete my term effective July 1, 2024. It has been a fruitful journey. I thank God. In recent months the Diocese has two new canon lawyers who are priests, ready to serve. There is also another priest in study, so the Diocese will be well staffed. I will remain an "assessor" if requested in any case. I thank the Diocesan Office for their team efforts with me over these many years. Now I wish to devote more time to the parish as we together go along the Way...

Monsignor Michael J. Cariglio, Jr., Pastor and Rector

Message of the Holy Father for the First World Children's Day 25 - 26 May 2024

Dear Children! Your first World Day . . . will be held in Rome on 25-26 May this year . . . I want to speak to each of you, dear children, because, as the Bible teaches us, and as Jesus showed so often, "you are precious" in God's eyes (Is 43:4). . . .

You remind us that we are all children, brothers and sisters. . . . All of you, girls and boys, are a source of joy for your parents and your families, but also for our human family and for the Church, in which each of us is like a link in a great chain stretching from the past to the future and covering the whole earth. . . .

Dear young friends, in order for us and our world to grow and flourish, it is not enough to be united with one another; we need, above all else, to be united with Jesus. From him we receive a great deal of courage. He is always close to us, his Spirit goes before us and accompanies us on all the world's pathways. Jesus told us: "Behold, I make all things new" (Rev 21:5); this is the theme I have chosen for your first World Day. . . . With Jesus, we can dream of the renewal of our human family and work for a more fraternal society that cares for our common home. This starts with little things, like saying hello to others, asking permission, begging pardon, and saying thank you. Our world will change if we all begin with these little things

That is not all. The fact is that we cannot be happy all by ourselves, because our joy increases to the extent that we share it. Joy is born of gratitude for the gifts we have received and which we share in turn and it grows in our relationships with others. When we keep the blessings we have received to ourselves, or throw tantrums to get this or that gift, we forget that the greatest gift that we possess is ourselves, one another: all of us, together, are "God's gift."

Now, I am going to share a special secret with you. If we really want to be happy, we need to pray, to pray a lot, to pray every day, because prayer connects us directly to God. Prayer fills our hearts with light and warmth; it helps us to do everything with confidence and peace of mind. Jesus constantly prayed to the Father. Do you know what Jesus called him? In his language, he simply called him "Abba", which means "Daddy" (cf. Mk 14:36). Let's do the same thing! We will always feel that Jesus is close to us. He himself promised us that, when he said, "For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them" (Mt 18:20).

Dear children, . . . I would ask all of you to pray the same prayer that Jesus taught us – the Our Father. Recite it every morning and every evening, in your families too, together with your parents, brothers, sisters and grandparents. But not just by saying the words! Think about those words that Jesus taught us. He is calling us and he wants us to join actively with him, on this World Children's Day, to become builders of a new, more humane, just and peaceful world. Jesus, who offered himself on the Cross to gather all of us together in love, who conquered death and reconciled us with the Father, wants to continue his work in the Church through us. Think about this, especially those of you who are preparing to receive First Communion. God has loved us from all eternity (cf. Jer 1:5). He looks upon us with the eyes of a loving father and a gentle mother. He never forgets us (cf. Is 49:15) and every day he accompanies us and renews us with his Spirit.
