Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace, join to your own suffering the pain of all who have been hurt in body, mind, and spirit by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Over the past couple of years, there have been several Bible Studies offered at our parish. I always find myself anticipating, with excitement, these short, very informative sessions.

As a baby boomer growing up in the 50's and 60's, my first memory of my training in the Catholic faith was memorizing the answers to the many questions in the Baltimore Catechism. As a cradle Catholic, I appreciated the need to know God's commandments, the laws of the Church, who God is, and why we are here, but I must admit I still did not understand the faith beyond what I memorized.

Reflecting on the busy years of raising children, I loved and tried to live our faith in the midst of juggling life's many responsibilities. Now that my children are all grown and I have more free time available, I find myself reflecting on my faith and discovering things I didn't even know I didn't know!

Each time the parish has offered a course on the study of God's Word, I have tried to attend. Scripture and Tradition — what greater theme/plot can be presented? If you have been thinking about attending one of our Bible sessions, let me assure you that it is time well spent!

Prayer for the 4th World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

Lord, faithful God,
You who created us in Your image,
You who never leaves us alone
and who accompanies us through every season of life,
do not abandon us, take care of us,
and grant us, once again
the ability to discover ourselves and recognize that we are your children.

Renew our hearts with your Word and do not allow anyone to be cast aside.
May your Spirit of love fill us with your tenderness
and teach us to say:
"I will not abandon you!"
To those we meet on our journey.

With the help of your beloved Son,
may we not lose the taste for fraternity and may we not conform to the sadness of loneliness.
Help us to look to the future with renewed hope,
and make the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly
a day without loneliness, and a day abundant with the first-fruits of your peace. Amen.

Message of His Holiness Pope Francis for the 4th World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

Dear brothers and sisters,

God never abandons his children, never. Even when our age advances and our powers decline, when our hair grows white and our role in society lessens, when our lives become less productive and can risk appearing useless. God does not regard appearances (cf. 1 Sam 16:7); he does not disdain to choose those who, to many people, may seem irrelevant. God discards no stone. . . .

Sacred Scripture as a whole is a story of the Lord's faithful love. It offers us the comforting certainty that God constantly shows us his mercy, always, at every stage of life, in whatever situation we find ourselves, even in our betrayals. The Psalms are filled with the wonder of the human heart before God who cares for us despite our insignificance (cf. Ps 144:3-4); they assure us that God has fashioned each one of us from our mother's womb (cf. Ps 139:13) and that even in hell he will not abandon our life (cf. Ps 16:10). We can be certain, then, that he will be close to us also in old age, all the more because, in the Bible, growing old is a sign of blessing.

At the same time, in the Psalms we also find this heartfelt plea to the Lord: "In my old age do not abandon me" (cf. Ps 71:9). Words that are strong, even crude. They make us think of the extreme suffering of Jesus, who cried out on the cross: "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" (Mt 27:46).

In the Bible, then, we find both the certainty of God's closeness at every stage of life and the fear of abandonment, particularly in old age and in times of pain. There is no contradiction here. If we look around, we have no difficulty seeing that its words reflect an utterly evident reality. All too often, loneliness is the bleak companion of our lives as elderly persons and grandparents. . . .

On this Fourth World Day devoted to them, let us show our tender love for the grandparents and the elderly members of our families. Let us spend time with those who are disheartened and no longer hope in the possibility of a different future. In place of the self-centred attitude that leads to loneliness and abandonment, let us instead show the open heart and the joyful face of men and women who have the courage to say "I will not abandon you", and to set out on a different path.

To all of you, dear grandparents and elderly persons, and to all those who are close to you I send my blessing, accompanied by my prayers. . .

Walk with One

Will YOU answer the Call?

During this Year of Mission, Jesus is inviting each of us to be his hands and feet in a special way, reaching out to those who are lost or have wandered away from his Church, and accompanying them on their journey home. This isn't just a communal call - it's a personal one. YOU are invited to be God's instrument in the life of one other person.

1 Identify

Don't just pick someone. Ask God whom he wants you to accompany on their journey home to the Church. He will point you to the person he has in mind and open doors for the conversations that need to happen.

2 Intercede

As soon as the Lord lays someone on your heart, begin to pray for them! Ask God to remove whatever obstacles are making it difficult for this person to draw closer to Christ and his Church. Pray for the grace to be able to accompany them well.

3 Connect

Look for ways to build a deeper relationship with this person. Get together with them for coffee or lunch. Listen deeply for promptings from the Holy Spirit as you get to know your friend's joys and struggles. Share with them some of your own.

4 Invite

Follow the promptings of the Holy Spirit. When the time is right, invite your friend to take a concrete next step in fostering a personal relationship with Jesus and the Church. This might mean joining you for a small group or Mass on Sunday.

If every active Catholic brings just one person into an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist, it will be a remarkable revival for our time! Not only will this journey change the person you are walking with, it will change your life as well. Visit www.eucharisticrevival.org/walk-with-one for more information.

You go to the celebration of Mass, receive communion, adore the Lord and then what do you do after? You go out and evangelize. Jesus asks this of us. The Eucharist, then, impels us to a strong and committed love of neighbor... especially those who are poor, suffering, weary or who may have gone astray in life.
