Buona Domenica!

Over the past nine years, the Oblate Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, who on average, number around twenty Sisters who serve in our diocese, have held a special evening called the Bella Sera. The evening consists of a very nice Italian dinner, an Italian auction, Italian music - just a very nice evening for all who participate, and the proceeds of the evening benefit the apostolate of the Sisters here in the Diocese of Youngstown. Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica was pleased to host this year's Bella Sera.

As you know, the Oblate Sisters, founded by Blessed Mother Maria Theresa Casini in Italy, are an international order. They are in Italy, the United States, Brazil, Africa, Peru and India. Like many religious communities, they serve families and children. Here, in Hubbard, they have a wonderful preschool and kindergarten. They also, and most especially, pray for the sanctification of priests throughout the world and are attentive in affirming those in the priestly ministry. They even have a home for retired priests who, in residency, enjoy their retirement as the Sisters effectively keep them healthy, both in body and in spirit.

The Oblate Sisters are a treasure to us in this diocese as they spiritually enrich the children, the parents, their families, and the priests. A wonderful gift to have in the Diocese of Youngstown as we go along the Way...

A Message from Christopher Anthony

On September 10th, Bishop Bonnar formally accepted my request to withdraw from formation for the Permanent Diaconate. This has not been an easy or hasty decision but one that came about through necessity at this time, consistent prayerful discernment, and honest consultation with both my family and formation advisors.

The way you each lovingly, prayerfully supported me and my family, especially throughout the past several years, is a lasting grace and endlessly encouraging to Frankie, to Nicole, and to me. I share Bishop Bonnar's sentiment expressed in his letter accepting my request: "It is my hope that you will continue to minister and remain active in your parish in the way God is calling you at this time," and I would encourage each of you, likewise to discern how God is calling you to serve.

Please be assured of my commitment as a Lay Leader of Prayer and in other ministries, and especially of my sincere gratitude. From the bottom of my heart, thank you!
