Buona Domenica!

Years ago, I was driving south on South Avenue and while waiting at a red light, low and behold, I noticed the driver next to me was a member of the parish. I beeped the horn, and waved hello, but I noticed right away that I was disturbing this person in his prayer of the rosary. He smiled and waved, the green light came on and off we went. But I thought, what a wonderful witness for me to see: this member of the parish devoutly praying the rosary as he drove in the car early in the morning.

I always remember that when a man joins the Knights of Columbus, they are directed to keep a rosary in their pocket every day of their life. And all of you know that our Blessed Mother under the title of Our Lady of Fatima, has exhorted us to pray the rosary daily as a spiritual weapon in our world.

Speaking of weapons, what a world we live in!!! Artillery and bombs in the billions of dollars to nourish wars that destroy children, men and women, who want to live an ordinary life. Instead, it is for their utter destruction of buildings, neighborhoods, cities, so that the ordinary person is deprived of ordinary daily life. What destruction!

This unfortunate state of affairs in our world is a reminder of the Christian to pick up the rosary each day, our powerful spiritual weapon that really works as we go along the Way.

"[W]hatever the man called every living creature, that was its name." Genesis 2:19

The creation story reminds us that since the start, God has put the entire world into our care and that stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it isn't something recently invented by the Church. Each generation is given the responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations.

WHY DO WE LIGHT CANDLES?

The candle is a sacrifice. As the candle burns, it consumes itself and the work of the labor that went into making the candle is consumed. When we burn a candle in prayer, we offer the fruit of our labor as a sacrifice to God. As long as the candle stays lit, the sacrifice is ongoing, thus extending our time in prayer. Since most of us are not candle makers, our donation is our sacrifice.

The word “votive” comes from the Latin word votum, which means “expressing a desire.” When we light a votive candle, we make our desires and petitions known to God.

Matthew 26:26-28

Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, "Drink of it, all of you; for this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."

Catholic Perspective

At the Last Supper, Jesus takes bread and wine in his hands and says, "This is my body" and "This is my blood." In doing so, he identified these elements to have been changed from ordinary bread and wine to his own body and blood.

Common Objections

JESUS REFERRED TO HIMSELF AS "THE DOOR" AND "THE TRUE VINE."

REASONING

Jesus was speaking metaphorically when he said that the bread and wine are his body and blood. After all, he referred to himself as "the door" (John 10:9) and as "the true vine" (John 15:1).

RESPONSE

Jesus does often speak in metaphors. But Jesus is speaking a little differently during the Last Supper. Saying "I am the door" is different from pointing to an actual, material door and saying, "This door is me." (For what it's worth, Jesus' followers seem to understand this distinction: when Jesus says that he is "the door" or "the true vine," no one starts looking for an actual door or vine.)

During the Last Supper, Jesus makes a direct statement about the nature of a specific, material object: "This [bread] is my body" and "This [wine] is my blood."

JESUS MEANT WHAT HE SAID IN A "SPIRITUAL" SENSE.

REASONING

Jesus said that eating flesh has no profit and that the words he speaks are spirit and life (John 6:63). That means he must be speaking solely in a spiritual sense when he says the bread and wine are his flesh and blood.

RESPONSE

Jesus often uses "flesh" and "spirit" to distinguish human understanding from divinely revealed truth. Jesus refers to this distinction when he says, "You judge according to the flesh, I judge no one. Yet even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for it is not I alone that judge, but I and he who sent me" (John 8:15-16).

In John 6, Jesus promises the Eucharist. The crowd understands him to be speaking literally and is horrified. Rather than explain that he was only speaking metaphorically, Jesus says, in effect, "You can't understand this right now because you are relying on human reason alone [the "flesh"]. That won't help you here. You must rely on what I am telling you, which is divinely revealed truth [the "spirit"]."

OCIA Becoming Catholic

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is a process through which adults are invited to grow more deeply in their faith. OCIA meets weekly on Tuesday evenings from 7pm to 8:30pm, in the John Paul II Center (the Duplex). Participants may join this process at any time.

OCIA is for:

- Unbaptized adults and children over the age of seven who are considering entrance into the Catholic Church through Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist.
- Adults and children over the age of seven who were baptized in another tradition and are considering becoming a Catholic.
- Adults who were baptized Catholic but did not complete their initiation through Confirmation and/or First Eucharist.

Catholics who would like to learn more about and share their faith while enriching their spiritual lives may serve the participants in the OCIA process as hospitality ministers, prayer companions, and catechists.

If you are interested in OCIA, participating or volunteering, please contact Michele Berardi at 330-743-4144 or email office@olmcsta.com.

WELCOME!

Congratulations to Richard Smith, who was officially welcomed as a candidate in the OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) process on Sunday, September 29. Richard is a baptized Christian who is receiving catechetical instruction in anticipation of receiving Confirmation and the Eucharist at the Easter Vigil this spring. Pictured left is Richard with his sponsor, Joseph Campana. On the right, Msgr. Cariglio is signing Richard with the sign of the cross on his forehead as a reminder of his baptism into Christ's saving death and resurrection. Please pray for Richard and his catechists in their journey towards Easter.

A Prayer for Life to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament

O Jesus, you came that we might have life—and have it in abundance. Together with the Father and the Holy Spirit, you form us in our mothers' wombs and call us to love you for all eternity.

As your most precious gift of human life is attacked, draw us ever closer to your Real Presence in the Eucharist. Dispel the darkness of the culture of death, for you are the light that shines in the darkness, and the darkness cannot overcome it.

By the power of your Eucharistic Presence, help us to defend the life of every human person at every stage. Transform our hearts to protect and cherish all whose lives are most vulnerable.

For you are God, forever and ever. Amen.
