ALONG THE WAY with MSGR. CARIGLIO

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | OCTOBER 13, 2024

Buona Domenica!

As we go along the Way in daily life, we ought never to forget the necessity of daily prayer. Many of us from childhood have memorized excellent prayers of adoration, thanksgiving, petition, and pardon for sins. These standard prayers also contain within them how we are to lead our life and how we are to grow in holiness.

We can pray spontaneously also without any standard prayer, and just talk to God or one of the Saints. God, the Blessed Mother, and the Saints I believe are terrific listeners. Have a good talk.

But there is another kind of prayer that is most needed in our daily life. You see we live in a world that is so noisy and cacophonous, that we can't even hear ourselves. I often think of the number of times I have attended festive dinners and the music was so loud you could not hear one another talk. You feel like you're missing out on talking with your friends and family.

Pope Francis has often mentioned the value of silent prayer and Adoration. Be silent and let God speak, at different times of the day. He often has exhorted the Faithful to spend one hour in silent Adoration before the Blessed Sacrament weekly. Just simply look at our Lord, veiled in the bread, therein is His Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. Just look at Him in silence, and let Him look at you. That hour becomes precious and purifies the soul.

When your life becomes so noisy, replace that noise with reverent prayer, as we go along the Way.

Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. However, we are all called to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts, and especially the one that means the most to us! That includes our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

Names will be listed in the bulletin for three months unless otherwise requested.

During the Easter Vigil liturgy, the single flame of the Easter candle shines through the darkness. That small flame spreads as each person's candle is lit and the light of Christ is shared with others. Before we know it, the entire Church is ablaze with the warm glow of candlelight and the darkness has been vanquished.

We are each called by God to be that light of Christ that breaks through the darkness. We are called to be his disciples, continually transformed by our encounter with him and sharing in his mission. Jesus came that we might have life.

Part of the impetus for the Eucharistic Revival was a concern that some Catholics do not believe, or at least do not understand, that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist. Even though our human senses perceive bread and wine, the Eucharist is Jesus—body, blood, soul, and divinity. Similarly, many people do not realize or acknowledge the sanctity of human life when it is hidden in the womb. Both instances call for us to help others recognize these sacred gifts that may not be perceivable through our human senses. We need to help others understand that just because something may not be apparent to our eyes does not mean that it is not there or that it is not important.

We live in a society that rejects those who are weak, fragile, or vulnerable. Yet, it is precisely within these conditions that a person is most in need of our care and protection. Pope Francis reminds us that “every child who, rather than being born, is condemned unjustly to being aborted, bears the face of Jesus Christ, bears the face of the Lord, who even before he was born, and then just after birth, experienced the world’s rejection.”<sup>1</sup>

“The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.”

The U.S. bishops have affirmed that, while it is important to address all the ways in which human life is threatened, “abortion remains our pre-eminent priority as it directly attacks our most vulnerable brothers and sisters, destroying more than a million lives each year in our country alone.”<sup>2</sup>

As Pope St. John Paul II wrote, “we are facing an enormous and dramatic clash between good and evil, death and life, the ‘culture of death’ and the ‘culture of life’. ...we are all involved and we all share in it, with the inescapable responsibility of choosing to be unconditionally pro-life.”<sup>3</sup>

until the end of the age.”

Matthew 28:20

In the face of challenges such as abortion and physician-assisted suicide, we may feel that we are not equal to the task of overcoming the darkness. Yet, we are not alone. Jesus tells us, “I am with you always, until the end of the age” (Matthew 28:20).

The God who became man to save us still dwells among us. For Christ is “the light [that] shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it” (John 1:5). He is the one who overcame death and continually raises us to new life. He remains close to us always, seeking us out in each moment of our lives.

Jesus gave his very flesh to give us the gift of eternal life and invites us to the most profound experience of this gift in our celebration of the Eucharist. When we meet Jesus in the Eucharist, this encounter has the power to change us. The Eucharist has the power to transform the depths of our hearts and the heart of our culture. United to the power of his Eucharistic Presence, may we work to ensure that each person has life—and has it in abundance.

Inspired by the parable of the wedding banquet in Matthew 22:9, this year's theme, "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," emphasizes two core aspects:

Going Out: Mission work involves going out into the world, reaching out to those who have not heard the Gospel, and inviting them to experience God's love. It's a call to be active and engaged in spreading the faith.

Inviting Everyone: The invitation is universal, reflecting God's love for all. It calls on us to welcome everyone to the feast of the Eucharist and the ultimate banquet in the Kingdom of God.

This fund supports the pastoral and evangelizing work of the Church, including building churches, providing healthcare and education, and training future priests and religious. Your generosity makes a profound difference in places where resources are scarce.
