Buona Domenica!

As a priest of the Diocese of Youngstown, I have been given the charge of promoting the annual appeal of our diocese at our parish. Over the years, it has had several names: the Annual Appeal for Catholic Charities, the Bishop's Appeal for Charity and Church, and now, simply, the Annual Diocesan Appeal. The appeal still reaches out primarily to assist the needy of our diocese, which continue to grow in number. It also addresses the increased stewardship needs for the mission of the diocese in spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ and the Church. Even during Covid, people have contributed significantly to this annual appeal because they realize how important it is for the wellbeing of our Church in our diocese.

This year, the goal for the Annual Diocesan Appeal was set at $4 million. The diocese is now only about $200,000 short of its goal. As to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel - St. Anthony of Padua Parish, we have, fortunately, exceeded our goal once again. 251 households to date have contributed toward our $81,000 parish goal. These generous pledges, along with the generous pledge of The Cafaro Foundation, render our pledge total at $147,882.

I am grateful to all these families. You may receive by mail one final reminder if you have not yet contributed to the Appeal. Do so, if you can. Though we may not be the largest Catholic diocese in the United States, we are still fully One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic. I am convinced that the Annual Diocesan Appeal helps us to be this, as we go along the Way.

World Mission Sunday highlights the important role missionary organizations and mission-oriented individuals have in sharing the Good News of God's Kingdom and working in co-operation with God to make the Kingdom more visible right now. This year the Holy Father encourages us to consider how the work of the Missions is effective when the work lovingly and generously offers to share God's gifts with persons and communities who might not be aware of what those gifts are.

The work of Mission is fundamentality about open hospitality, an offering of an invitation into better, fuller life within the earthly setting we find now -- and, ultimately into the fullness of God's life in the Kingdom.

On World Mission Sunday we pay special attention to the organizations and individuals who do this work in places of dire need. But, in truth, each one of us is called to be a missionary. Each of us is asked by Christ to share with others our love and commitment to discipleship within the specific circumstances of our own lives. The deeper our commitment to discipleship the more passionate our desire to share it with others can be.

All powerful God, comforter of the afflicted, we pray that you will provide much needed consolation to all those impacted by Hurricanes Helene and Milton. Grant mercy to all those who died as a result of these storms and bring comfort to the grieving. Find the lost, strengthen the weary, encourage the hopeless and provide for all those who have been displaced and who have lost so very much. Thank you for the selfless first responders and everyday hero-citizens that risked their own safety to rescue others. We trust in your providential care to help all victims of these storms rebuild and overcome every hardship. Grant a generous spirit to us all that we may compassionately love our neighbor and fellow countrymen during this time of devastation.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations to Lindsay and Joshua Beckett, who reaffirmed their commitment to each other in the eyes of their Catholic Faith by having their civil marriage validated on Sunday, October 13, at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica.

Catholic marriage is unique because it is a Sacrament that makes Christ present in our world. The relationship between husband and wife mirrors the relationship of Jesus Christ for his people. One of the many benefits of a sacramental marriage is the power of God's grace on their union.

Couples who have been married outside of the Catholic Church are invited to contact the Parish Office to schedule an appointment with Msgr. Cariglio.
