31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | NOVEMBER 3, 2024

Buona Domenica!

Over the past 50 years I have had the privilege of leading pilgrimages to the world famous sites of Lourdes and Fatima to honor our Blessed Mother. The pilgrims and I were always eager to pray hard and we experienced great spiritual fruit. We also had a very good time, and in many ways, these pilgrimages were better than a vacation.

This coming year, 2025, is a Jubilee Year. Jubilee Years happen every 25 Years in Rome and draw the Faithful to the City of Rome for a time of Grace and Blessing. Pope Francis has given this Jubilee Year the theme "Pilgrims of Hope." I thought it would be good and wholesome to take a pilgrimage there for this Jubilee Year.

Our pilgrimage will take place September 29 to October 8, 2025. There will be a total of 5 nights in Rome and 3 nights in Assisi, and 2 days to go across the ocean and back. The hotels will be comfortable but not exorbitant in price. The food will be very Italian and very good. We will have an audience with the Pope and visit the four Major Basilicas of Rome. Three days in Assisi will bring renewal to your spirit!

I am working with Leanna Pipala for all the travel arrangements. Scott Schulick is giving me some very good advice. We will, I am confident, have a package put together in less than a month and will share it with you as soon as it's available. Please consider joining us; you may love it!

I like Francis' theme "Pilgrims of Hope" as we Believers look to the future of our World, and continue to go along the Way.

FATHER RYAN STAWAISZ

HEROIC SERVICE IN HIS FINAL DAYS

Shortly before his ordination, Ryan Stawaisz received a devastating cancer diagnosis—his second one after successfully beating cancer as a junior in college.

Despite his diagnosis, Fr. Ryan began his priestly ministry at Prince of Peace in Houston in 2019. Just two years later, on June 21, 2021, the young priest passed away, leaving a lasting impact on his parishioners, many of whom attested to his tremendous witness.

Those who knew Fr. Ryan were deeply touched by his selfless ministry, even in his final days as a priest—so much so that he has inspired a film about his life.

His brother Ross Stawaisz says he hopes Fr. Ryan's story will show the "need to stand up for some things. You need to live your life in a way that emulates Christ."

Fr. Ryan's mother, Susan Stawaisz, said she has heard from several cancer patients on how the movie has touched them: "I feel like anybody who's gone through any kind of suffering can relate to offering up your suffering and suffering heroically."

Read the feature story about Fr. Ryan and his family at catholicnewsagency.com

The new film "Love God's Will" tells the heroic story of Fr. Ryan Stawaisz's selfless ministry through the eyes of his family, friends, and fellow priests.

SERRA SPONSORS 50 ORDERS

Above, an army of young sisters from the Servants of the Pierced Hearts of Jesus and Mary process into the National Eucharistic Congress. They are members of one of the fastest-growing religious communities in the U.S., with a large presence in Miami.

In the months leading up to the National Eucharistic Congress, Serra International raised more than $150,000 to sponsor the presence of more than 50 religious communities.

"It was amazing to walk through the convention hall and see hundreds of young sisters," said one attendee. "Just seeing their joy and vibrant smiles gave me a lot of hope for the future of the Church!"

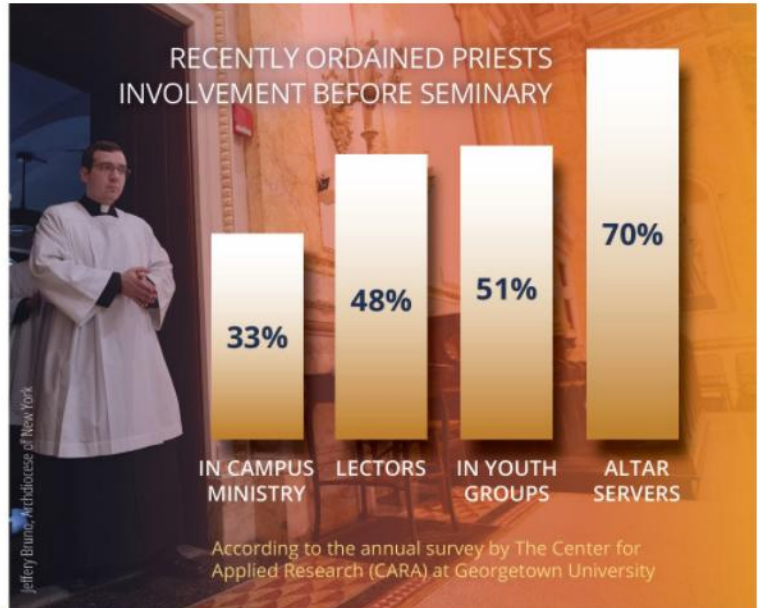

RECENTLY ORDAINED PRIESTS

ORIGINS of PRIESTHOOD

Pope Francis has emphasized that seminarians must be “men of communion” who arise organically from the communities they serve, then return after seminary to minister even more profoundly.

That vision is slowly becoming a reality in the U.S., with most of the priests ordained in 2024 reporting active involvement in their parishes and schools.

According to CARA’s recent study of men ordained in 2024, the average age at which they first considered the priesthood was 16. Between 32% and 42% went to a Catholic elementary school, high school, or college. About 60% obtained college degrees before seminary, and 70% had full-time work experience. A full 75% reported regularly participating in Eucharistic Adoration before entering priestly formation.

FATHER-SON SEMINARY TRIP

“I dream of a day when young men enter seminary, not looking for a father, but having been brought by their fathers,” said Deacon James Keating of Omaha, who is renowned for his work in priestly formation.

About 45% of seminarians say they were discouraged by a friend or family member from considering the priesthood. And while some parents are tentatively open to the idea, many aren’t thrilled about it.

But a real revival of a “vocations culture” requires that parents actively encourage their sons and daughters to seriously consider priesthood and religious life. Think about it this way: just as you would take your teen son to visit prospective colleges, why not try to arrange a visit to a seminary?

“It is the duty of the whole Christian community to foster vocations so that the needs of the sacred ministry are sufficiently met in the entire Church.”

~Code of Canon Law #233.1

PRAYER TO KNOW MY VOCATION

Lord, I want to be happy in this life and spend eternity with You in the life to come.

From the first moment of my existence, You knew my vocation. Please help me discover Your plan for my life.

Help me to know myself.
 Help me to overcome my fears.
 Help me to want what You want.
 Help me to trust You completely.

Send Your Holy Spirit into my mind and heart so I can see the gifts You have given me and hear Your call to serve the Church. Increase my desire to bring others to You and to help them reach heaven.

Mary Most Holy, Mother of God, pray for me, that I can discover my vocation and have the courage to respond in faith.

Amen.

SAINTS AT THE BASILICA ANSWER KEY

Forming Conscience for Faithful Citizenship offers the following instructions in making moral judgment: “Catholics often face difficult choices about how to vote. This is why it is so important to vote according to a well-formed conscience that perceives the proper relationship among moral goods. A Catholic cannot vote for a candidate who favors a policy promoting an intrinsically evil act, such as abortion, euthanasia, assisted suicide, deliberately subjecting workers or the poor to subhuman living conditions, redefining marriage in ways that violate its essential meaning, or racist behavior, if the voter’s intent is to support that position. In such cases, a Catholic would be guilty of formal cooperation in grave evil. At the same time, a voter should not use a candidate’s opposition to an intrinsic evil to justify indifference or inattentiveness to other important moral issues involving human life and dignity” (No. 34).

It adds: “When all candidates hold a position that promotes an intrinsically evil act, the conscientious voter faces a dilemma. The voter may decide to take the extraordinary step of not voting for any candidate or, after careful deliberation, may decide to vote for the candidate deemed less likely to advance such a morally flawed position and more likely to pursue other authentic human goods.

“In making these decisions, it is essential for Catholics to be guided by a well-formed conscience that recognizes that all issues do not carry the same moral weight and that the moral obligation to oppose policies promoting intrinsically evil acts has a special claim on our consciences and our actions” (Nos. 36-37).
