MISSION STATEMENT

To actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Buona Domenica!

Having completed the month of October I am always mindful of the need to rededicate ourselves to defending the priceless value of the human person, especially within the womb. We are made in the image and the likeness of God at the moment of conception. Double shame on a world that does not respect and revere human life! I also remember that October is the month dedicated to the Guardian Angels and to all of God's holy angels. This world is not confined to physical boundaries but rather, there is a real space, though invisible, where we find the community of the holy angels. Pray to them! And seek their intercession in your lives.

On November 1st, at the 7pm Mass, there were twelve children dressed as twelve saints in Heaven. Their costumes were perfect and far surpassed the 80,000 plus trick-or-treaters costumed the night before. Seeing them was like Heaven on Earth! I was speechless. Thank you children, and thank you parents for waking up my soul.

We are now in the month of November, dedicated to all souls. Many of you have made contributions to the Church in memory of your deceased loved ones. Thank you! Do not forget to pray for the dead - not only those who are being purified in Purgatory for Heaven, but also for those whom we have loved and are now in the Communion of Saints. Your prayers to them become their prayers for us. And remember the dead who have lost their lives on Earth due to war, to violence, or to hunger. Too many in a world that should know better! Double shame on humanity! Pray for them whose lives on Earth were far too brief. These are good things for us to ponder as we go Along the Way.

BAPTIZED IN CHRIST

Congratulations to Bailey Day, daughter of Michael and Karli Day, who was baptized at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Basilica on Sunday, November 3.

One of the traditions of our Catholic Faith is the optional use of Black Vestments for All Soul’s Day, Funeral Masses, and Masses for the Dead. Black Vestments are a wonderful way to remember our mortality and imperfection, while we mourn the loss of loved ones. They also remind us to pray for our loved ones, that they may rest in peace. The parish makes available the option of using either White, Purple, or Black Vestments upon request for Funeral Masses and Masses for the Dead.

ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA CHURCH
FALL Spaghetti DINNER

The St. Anthony Fall Spaghetti Dinner was held on October 20th and offered both dining in and take out options for our guests. In total we served 387 dinners. Our guests reflected that it was a delicious meal. To host this splendid dinner, we had 38 wonderful volunteers who gave their time and positivity to this endeavor. Thank you to all who attended. . . It was great to serve you! Thank you, Monsignor for your direction and enthusiasm. A huge thank you from myself, Erik, June, Ernie, Patti, Karen, Rick to all who helped to make this dinner a success.

Much Christian love,
 Deirdre Adduci

CELEBRATING ALL SAINTS DAY

On Friday, November 1, our parish celebrated All Saints Day with a beautiful display of the Relics in the Basilica and twelve children who dressed as various Saints. The children did a wonderful job acting like the Saints they dressed up as.
