All Soul's Day, November 2nd, is an opportunity to remember our friends, relatives and loved ones who have died.

Though their absence from us may bring us sorrow, we also rejoice for they have been washed clean in baptism, buried with Christ, and share with us the hope for immortality, through his resurrection. Catholics look on death both as the final statement or act of a precious human life on earth and as the passage to a fuller, final life with the risen Christ in heaven. Remembering the phrases, "the sadness of death gives way to the bright promise of immortality" and "life is changed not ended."

For Christians who have "fought the good fight," death is a statement that readies us for eternity. If we live struggling to do right, trying to love, repenting of our sins, trusting in Jesus, then our death is not something to fear.

Today, I invite you to visit the graves of your loved ones. Visiting their graves is important for grief processing, honoring the earthly life of your loved ones, connected with your history and offering prayers for their eternal rest.

Let us pray: L'eterno riposo dona loro, O Signore e Splenda ad essi la luca perpetua. Riposino in pace. Amen.

SCAM ALERT

If at any time you receive an email or a text from "Msgr. Zuraw" or the 'parish' with the subject HELP or anything suspicious, please do not open it or respond. Neither our parish or Msgr. Zuraw will ever ask you for money (eg. gift cards, cash, etc.) via personal emails or texts.

Correspondence like this is a scam. Always feel free to call the office if ever in doubt. 330-743-4144.

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

ENCOUNTERING JESUS

SERRA CLUBS LAUNCH 'ADORE' TO LINK ADORATION & VOCATIONS

“We hear a lot about holy hours, but many people feel they don’t have an hour, or even a half-hour,” said Margo Geddie, the president-elect of Serra International, the Church’s official apostolate to promote vocations. “We feel it’s important to encourage people to spend any amount of time—even just ten minutes—visiting Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. I know for me, it’s been life-changing.”

Why did Serra undertake this project? “It’s really pretty simple,” said Margo, “For years we’ve seen the link between vocations and devotion to the Blessed Sacrament. Go to any youth conference, and you can see the enthusiasm, the incredible graces being poured out during Adoration. And these are the same students who are answering the call, entering seminaries and convents.

So we thought if we can promote Adoration on the local level, we’re also promoting vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life.”

Of course, “making a visit” has long been a traditional devotion for Catholics, young and old alike. “We also want to encourage older people to say a quick prayer for vocations whenever they’re in the chapel,” said Margo. “Jesus told us we should beg for what we need—and every Catholic knows we need more sisters and priests.”

ADVICE TO SEMINARIANS

“Do not think of yourselves as alone, nor by yourselves,” said Pope Leo to seminarians in Rome this summer. He quoted a Church document on priestly formation, saying, “Each one of you is the protagonist of his own formation... but protagonist does not mean soloist! Therefore, I invite you always to cultivate communion, first of all with your seminary companions... Finally, the most important thing: keep your eyes fixed on Jesus, cultivating the relationship of friendship with Him.”

Diocese of Youngstown

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

October 28, 2025

To the Clergy, Religious, and Faithful of the Diocese of Youngstown,

Traditionally, in the month of November it is our custom as Catholics to pray for and remember our beloved dead. These prayerful remembrances typically involve such things as Holy Mass, the veneration of relics, Books of Remembrance and visits to the cemetery.

As we remember our beloved dead, we also become mindful of our own mortality and the need to prepare accordingly. To that end, it is important that we embrace this November time to prepare a Last Will and Testament, along with Advanced Medical Directives with the establishment of a Durable Power of Attorney and ensuring that we have in place arrangements for a proper funeral and burial. Some people even are intentional about selecting the readings and music for their funeral liturgy. Some make it known as to whether they prefer direct internment or cremation. At the time of our death, our loved ones can find solace from their grief in knowing that everything is in order and few if any decisions need to be made on their part.

At a time in which words are hard to come by, the Church has in place an Order of Christian Funerals that offers words and a direction forward in commemorating the death of a loved one while, at the same time, celebrating their life with reverence and solemnity. The Church is always available and willing to accompany those who are grieving the loss of a loved one. The clergy and staff of our parishes stand ready to be of support to you when your loved one dies along with our local funeral directors. Our diocese is blessed to collaborate with these professionals at what is unquestionably a difficult time.

In recent years throughout our diocese those involved in parish life and pastoral care to the grief stricken who have lost a loved one have been experiencing a definite and growing trend. The trend concerns the locations of wakes or visitations in the parish church. It should be noted that this trend does not happen in some of our churches given the fact that the church building is unsuitable for such an arrangement. Another reason why it may not happen is that the pastor, out of respect for the sacredness of the church, has not permitted it to happen. Some of these permissions depend solely on the pastor and when a new pastor changes direction it can become personal and problematic. Despite the growing trend, there is no consistency in practice in our diocese making the protocols uneven and disjointed. As a result, for the past year, we have been with the help of our funeral directors, presbyteral council, and deans examining this situation in the hopes of establishing a uniform policy for the diocese that would best reflect Church teaching and give both due respect to our church buildings and the deceased as well.

In reviewing this matter, it was discovered that many years ago when a member of the Catholic faithful died, the wake or visitation would often take place in the family home. The purpose of this event was to gather as a family to mourn, tell stories and to pray together. Eventually, the age of funeral homes arose, and funeral home became the place for visitations.

144 West Wood Street • Youngstown, Ohio 44503
(330) 744-8451 • Fax (330) 742-6448 • Email: dbonnar@youngstowndiocese.org

Today more families are requesting to hold the visitation for a loved one in church. This increasing trend to hold visitation in church can be attributed to several factors including, a matter of convenience, and cutting costs.

One of the concerns about having visitation in church is that the sacred space is compromised by noise and activity unbecoming of the reverence due to the Blessed Sacrament. The recent National Eucharistic Revival called a greater attention to the Holy Eucharist and the need to practice and maintain proper respect and reverence. While we pray for the dead in our churches, they are not meant to be a funeral home.

The church building is where the community gathers to hear the Word of God, to pray together, receive the sacraments and to celebrate Holy Eucharist. The church building is both the house of God on earth and a house fit for prayer. Churches are sacred buildings intended for divine worship and prayer.

The structure of the Order of Christian Funerals serves as a guide in the discernment of this matter. The funeral liturgy is comprised of specific stations. The first part of the funeral liturgy is the Vigil which involves the prayers to be prayed during the visitation in the funeral home. The second part of the liturgy is the Transfer of the Body to the Church. The fact that there is a transfer to the church clearly indicates that the ritual does not envision a viewing in the church building.

Article 1686 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church references the Order of Christian Funerals and identifies three places in which the rites are conducted, namely, “the home, the church, and the cemetery.”

The only exception to this practice is when a priest or religious dies. The priest or religious is customarily placed in the church/chapel for public visitation. This is a tradition of the Church that will continue to be practiced in the Diocese of Youngstown.

According to the Order of Christian Funerals, we celebrate the funeral rites to offer worship, praise and thanksgiving to God for the gift of a life which has now been returned to God, the author of life and the hope of the just. (Order of Christian Funerals #5)

Having funeral visitation in one of our churches is not in keeping with the spirit of the Order of Christian Funerals. Moreover, our study of this matter found that it is not practically possible in many of parishes for various reasons, therein, exposing a glaring inconsistency in practice.

Therefore, a after year-long study with the unanimous support of the Presbyteral Council, the Deans, the Pastoral Council, members of the clergy, and some of our area funeral directors, I hereby decree that funeral visitation will no longer be permitted in church buildings or facilities owned and operated by the Diocese of Youngstown effective December 1, 2025. The only exception to this practice will be when a priest or religious dies. The priest or religious is customarily placed in the church/chapel for public visitation. This is a tradition of the Church that will continue to be a practice in the Diocese of Youngstown.

Please know that as bishop I have a responsibility to ensure the sacredness of our church buildings with proper reverence for the Holy Eucharist. Moreover, I cannot allow a trend to compromise the spirit of the Order of Christian Funerals.

As we continue our earthly journey as pilgrims on the way, let us continue to prayerfully remember our beloved dead. “Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord, and let the perpetual light shine upon them. May their soul and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.” And together, let us pray, “That all may be one.”

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend David J. Bonnar
Bishop of Youngstown

THE HOLY SOULS IN PURGATORY

The Church dedicates November to remembering all her faithful children who have departed from this life, but have not yet attained the joys of heaven. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven" (1030). Join us throughout November in praying for all the faithful departed including our deceased family members, parishioners, and loved ones.

The annual Parish wide collection for the St. Vincent De Paul "Advent Goodie Bag Project" will be held throughout the month of November.

The bags are given to the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry for local distribution in our community.

Bins will be located in the vestibule & rectory of OLMC and the vestibule of St. Anthony Church. For monetary donations, questions or arranging for drop off contact Leanna at 330-743-3508

"...because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me..." JOHN 6:38

When praying the "Our Father", say the words slowly so you truly recognize what you are saying. Every day when praying this prayer, we repeat what Jesus said in the scripture passage – "thy kingdom come, thy will be done." Even though we say these words, do our actions reflect those words? This is the difference between saints and the rest of us. Saints were faithful and obedient to God's will. Start today – start aligning your words and actions with God's will for you.
