Follow the Good Shepherd

In a world filled with competing voices, anxieties and uncertainties, the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd offers a message of comfort, direction and security. Jesus declared, “I am the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.”

There are many in the world who will try to guide us, promising power and riches and worldly treasures. But there is only one Good Shepherd who genuinely cares for his sheep. If we listen for the voice of Jesus when he calls, he will walk ahead of us leading us to life in abundance.

Jesus is the Good Shepherd because He combines fierce protection with tender care, placing the well being of his followers above his own. Today we are reminded that no one has to navigate life alone. As the Good Shepherd, Jesus offers companionship, guidance and ultimate security that is goodness and love all the days of our life.

Pope Francis often reminded us that we must have “the smell of sheep.” This means being intimately involved in the lives of people, just not observing them from a distance. The 23rd Psalm is the backbone of today: “The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want”. This is not a promise of a life without challenges, but a promise that we do not walk through the dark valley alone.

On this Good Shepherd Sunday, we are invited to trust that we are safe, known, and deeply loved. Let us ask for grace to hear his voice above the noise and the courage to follow where he leads. Here are some practical ways to follow the example of the Good Shepherd: Adopt a Servant-Leader Heart, Know and Listen to His Voice, Care for Others, Live with Gratitude. Following the Good Shepherd means moving from being a lost sheep to becoming a good sheep who actively listens, trusts and loves as He does.

Diocese of Youngstown ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

Caring for one another through our Ministries

Help us reach our parish goal of $85,000 by donating today

Being nurtured and cared for is a wonderful feeling. As children, our parents and grandparents provide the love and safety of a warm family life. When we go to school, our teachers join them in encouraging our curiosity. And at all stages of life, we find support in our friendships. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, is the ultimate caretaker. His love for us is personal, even protective. Just as a dutiful shepherd knows every sheep in his flock, Jesus knows each of us and he calls us by name. In him, we are safe. In him, we find rest. And in him we "have life and have it more abundantly."

As a Church, we are invited to reflect that same shepherding love in the world—to be the voice that calls others to hope, healing, and faith. In that spirit, please consider supporting this year's Annual Diocesan Appeal. Your gift helps extend Christ's care to many in need.

2026 ANNUAL SEMINARIAN SUPPORT COLLECTION

Join the Universal Church today in observing the World Day of Prayer for Vocations, as we ask the Lord to send laborers into His harvest! This day is a reminder to pray for and support those discerning the priesthood, religious life, and other vocations in the Church.

Here are three simple ways you can participate:

Pray - offer a Rosary or a personal Holy Hour for an increase in vocations.

Encourage - take a moment to affirm someone who may have a vocation to the priesthood or religious life.

Make a donation to this weekend's Seminarian Support Collection - Your generous gift of any amount helps support the men preparing to serve as future priests in the Diocese of Youngstown.

Franciscan Friars of the Renewal

Masthead photo: A young friar prepares for transitus, the Franciscan tradition of celebrating the entrance of their patron saint into heaven. In 2026, the feast will take on special significance, as Pope Leo has declared a special jubilee year recognizing eight centuries of Francis of Assisi's profound influence on the Church.

CALLED BY NAME

'THEY SAW SOMETHING IN ME THAT I COULDN'T SEE IN MYSELF'

“When I first became Vocation Director, I discovered something remarkable,” said Fr. Jordan Dosch, a priest of the Diocese of Bismarck.

“I was looking through our archives and discovered an old ‘Called by Name’ list from about fifteen years earlier.” The list was from a campaign during which the bishop asked people to suggest young men who might make good priests. “As I looked at this long list of hundreds of young men, I saw my own name.”

“What’s amazing to me is that when my name was submitted, I was in junior high, and wasn’t even thinking about the priesthood—I barely even understood what it was. But someone saw something in me that I couldn’t yet see in myself.”

As Fr. Dosch examined the list, he saw more names he recognized. “I checked closely, and almost all of our young priests were on that list,” he said. “And some names were on the list ten times, which is a pretty good clue!”

Fr. Dosch says lay people have an important role to play in calling forth priestly vocations. “Every young Catholic guy has to struggle at some point with whether God may be calling him,” he said. “So when you see a devout young man and ask, ‘Have you ever considered the priesthood?’ it might confirm something that is already stirring in his heart.”

Daughters of Mary of Nazareth

The Romance of Religious Life

Many women say, “I could never be a nun. I want a guy to sweep me off my feet. I want walks on the beach, candlelight dinners, and warm embraces.” And yet there are thousands of religious sisters who are head-over-heels in love with Jesus Christ, who relish being His bride, who will do anything to please Him, and who are too romantic to choose any other kind of life!

Fr. Jordan Dosch is currently studying canon law in Rome. He is pictured here with two deacons at their ordination in St. Peter's Basilica.

A TRADITION FOR MOTHERS

At a priest's ordination, the bishop anoints his hands with sacred chrism and wipes them with a cloth that in older rites was called a maniturgium. Following an ancient and beautiful tradition, a priest may give this fragrant, oil-soaked cloth to his mother after his first Mass. She carefully preserves the cloth, then at her burial, her hands are tied together as in prayer by the maniturgium as a sign that she has offered her son to God and the Church.

AN INDISPENSABLE VOCATION

WHY WE NEED BROTHERS

Dominican Friars of St. Joseph

With today's shortage of priests, one might assume that any man entering a religious community would naturally go on to be ordained. Historically, however, this has never been the case. Religious life—marked by the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience—has always been recognized as a vocation in its own right, distinct from Holy Orders.

Religious brothers play a unique and essential role in the Church. Free from the demands of sacramental ministry, they are often able to devote themselves fully to works requiring long-term presence and deep personal engagement. For example, the Brotherhood of Hope, a community of all brothers, focuses on campus ministry in secular universities.

In contemplative communities such as the Cistercians, monk-brothers live in seclusion and austerity, centered on prayer and labor. Through this hidden fidelity, they bear powerful witness that God alone deserves our complete devotion because, in the end, our common vocation is union with Him in heaven.

Religious brotherhood is a vocation that deserves renewed attention by the faithful and serious consideration from young men discerning God's call.

PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

By Saint Thérèse of Lisieux

O Jesus, I pray for Your faithful and fervent priests; for Your unfaithful and tepid priests; for Your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields; for Your tempted priests; for Your lonely and desolate priest; for Your young priests; for Your dying priests; for the souls of Your priests in Purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to You the priests dearest to me: the priest who baptized me; the priests who absolved me from my sins; the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; the priests who taught and instructed me; all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way.

O Jesus, keep them all close to Your heart, and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity. Amen

Vocation Summer Camps

Vocations-themed summer camps—often run by priests and seminarians—are a staple in dioceses across the country. They offer a mix of prayer, friendship, and fun... and, occasionally, a lifelong calling. When telling their vocation stories, quite a few priests will tell you: it all started at camp!
