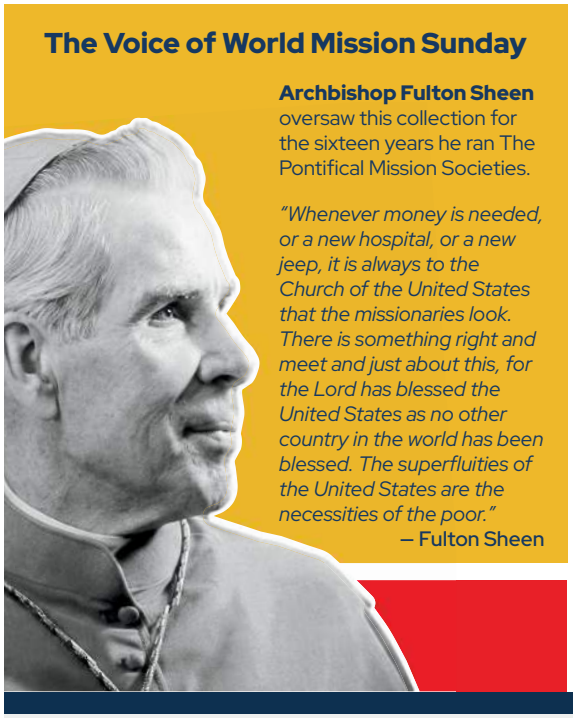
World Mission Sunday - Oct 18

Blessed Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen is known for his TV presence, preaching and charismatic personality. He said his "greatest love," however has always been the missions of the Church.

For 100 years, Catholics around the world have united on World Mission Sunday, celebrated this year on October 18, to pray for the Church's missionary work in the poorest and most remote corners of the world. The missions belong to the entire Church. Every baptized person is called to share God's love through prayer, generosity and witness. Inspired by the dedication of missionaries around the world, we need to continue working together so that the message of Christ may reach every community, especially those most in need.



As the Church celebrated the 100th anniversary of the establishment of World Mission Sunday, Pope Leo XIV reminds us that our communion in Christ is the wellspring of our shared missionary call and that the aim of our Christian mission is to bring people into communion with Christ and one another, transforming lives not just in the missions but for the Church and for the world for which the Church is leaven.

Please be generous next weekend as a second collection will be taken to help missionaries carry out their work to spread the Gospel.

We pray that these discussions may help all the faithful be further conformed to Christ and become powerful evangelists in the world today.

ONE IN CHRIST, United in Mission

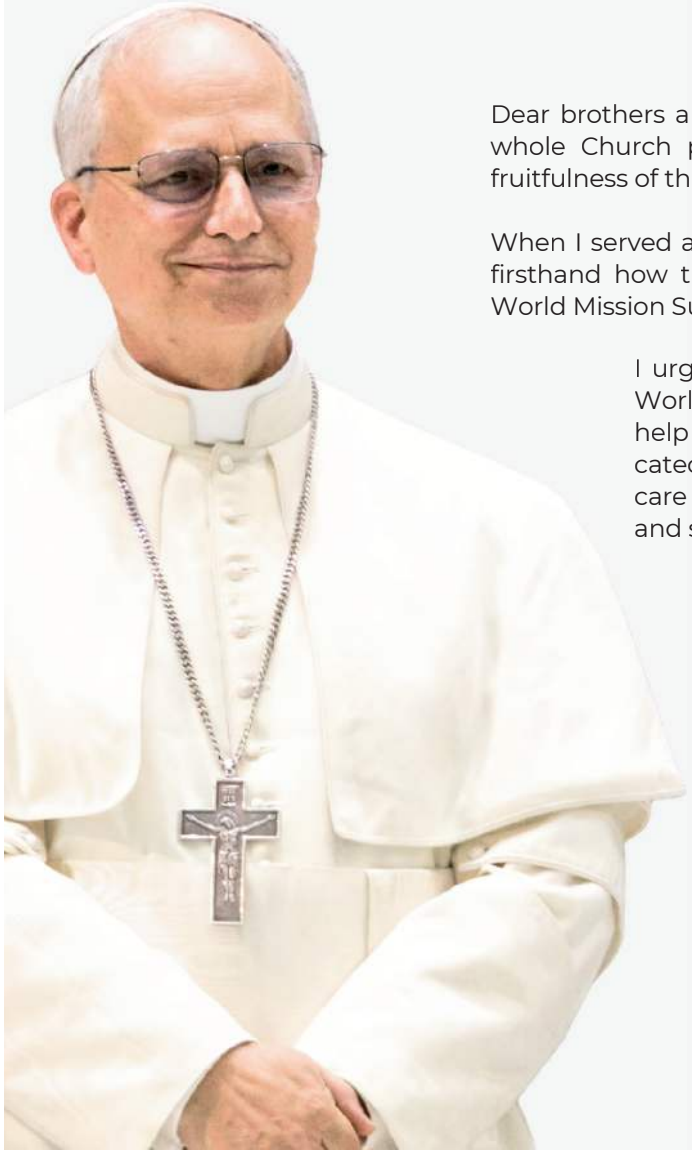
100 YEARS OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

World Mission Sunday
October 18, 2026



Dear brothers and sisters, on World Mission Sunday every year, the whole Church prays united, particularly for missionaries and the fruitfulness of their apostolic labors.

When I served as a missionary priest and then bishop in Peru, I saw firsthand how the faith, the prayer, and the generosity shown on World Mission Sunday can transform entire communities.

I urge every Catholic parish in the world to take part in World Mission Sunday. Your prayers, your support will help spread the gospel, provide for pastoral and catechetical programs, help to build new churches, and care for the health and educational needs of our brothers and sisters in mission territories.

This October [18th], as we reflect together on our baptismal call to be missionaries of hope among the peoples, let us commit ourselves anew to the sweet and joyful task of bringing Christ Jesus, our hope, to the ends of the earth. Thank you for everything you will do to help me help missionaries throughout the world. God bless you all.

World Mission Rosary

Pope Leo XIV reminds us that the Church's mission flows from our communion with the Lord and with one another. When we pray for the missions, we enter into that communion in a profound way, becoming spiritually united with those who proclaim the Gospel in every corner of the world.

By praying the World Mission Rosary, we are reminded that we are one Church, united in Christ, and that the mission entrusted to us belongs to all the baptized.

> We must pray, and not for ourselves, but for the world.*
>
> — ARCHBISHOP FULTON J. SHEEN

What is the World Mission Rosary?

First promoted in 1951 by Venerable Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen.

Each decade (set of 10 beads) represents a different part of the world where missionaries share the Good News of Jesus.

How to Pray the Rosary

- Crucifix – Sign of the Cross & Apostles' Creed
- First Large Bead – Our Father
- Next 3 Small Beads – Hail Mary (x3), then Glory Be
- Next Large Bead – Announce the 1st Mystery, pray the Our Father
- Next 10 Beads – Hail Mary (x10), then Glory Be
- Repeat for each Mystery (five decades total)
- End with Hail, Holy Queen

The Mysteries

- Joyful – Mon & Sat
- Luminous – Thu
- Sorrowful – Tue & Fri
- Glorious – Wed & Sun

The Colors & Their Meaning

- Green – Forests & grasslands of Africa
- Blue – Ocean around the Pacific Islands
- White – Europe, home of the Holy Father
- Red – Fire of faith in the Americas
- Yellow – Morning light of the East (Asia)

When you announce each Mystery, pray for that region.

Who is Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen?

- National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith
- Famous TV host & Emmy Award winner
- Died Dec. 9, 1979 – now Blessed

Prayers of the Rosary

- Apostles' Creed
- Our Father
- Hail Mary
- Glory Be
- Hail, Holy Queen

Why Pray the World Mission Rosary?

When you finish, you've prayed for the whole world and joined millions in the Church's mission.
