Remembering St. Pope John Paul II

We celebrate the feast day of Saint Pope John Paul II this Thursday, October 22. On that day the Church honors his historic 26-year pontificate and his profound impact on the modern world and the Catholic Church. October 22 marks the date of his inaugural Mass in 1978 after being elected pope. At that Mass he famously proclaimed, "Do not be afraid! Open wide the doors to Christ," a call for courage that challenged global oppression. During his 26-year pontificate he traveled to 129 countries, fostering interfaith dialogue and played a key role in the peaceful fall of communism in eastern Europe. He showed extraordinary grace by publicly forgiving the man who attempted to assassinate him in 1981.

As we remember his life, we reflect on his wisdom, compassion and his deep commitment to faith and humanity with these his most memorable quotes:

The future starts today, not tomorrow.

Freedom consists not in doing what we like but having the right to do what we ought.

The greatest danger for family life, in the midst of any society whose idols are pleasure, comfort and independence, lies in the fact that people close their hearts and become selfish.

Stupidity is also a gift of God,
but one mustn't misuse it.

John Paul II is Alive: Miracles of the 21st Century

The canonization of John Paul II produced more than 15,000 messages of healings or extraordinary events. Two of these cases, involving a mother from Costa Rica and a religious sister from France, have been analysed by prestigious medical specialists. Their conclusion is clear: There is no scientific explanation for the healings. This documentary analyses these miracles.

for the 100th World Mission Sunday 2026

Holy Father, make us one in Christ, rooted in his love that unites and renews. May all members of the Church be united in mission, docile to the Holy Spirit, courageous in bearing witness to the Gospel, proclaiming and daily embodying your faithful love for all creatures.

Bless all missionary men and women, support them in their efforts, and watch over them in hope!

Mary, Queen of Missions, accompany our work of evangelization in every corner of the earth: make us instruments of peace, and grant that the whole world may recognize in Christ the light that saves.

Amen.

A Legacy of Faith

by Chris & Michele Berardi

Each year, our parish community comes together to celebrate Christopher Columbus, the Italian Immigrant and the contributions of Italian Americans in the Mahoning Valley.

Christopher Columbus was a man of deep faith, a man who took his Catholic faith very seriously. One of his contemporaries, Bartolome de las Casas, described him in this way:

“He observed the fasts of the church most faithfully, confessed and made communion often, read the Divine Office like a churchman, hated blasphemy and profane swearing, and was most devoted to Our Lady and to the seraphic father St. Francis.”¹

This year, the Catholic Church celebrates the 800th anniversary of the death of St. Francis of Assisi. Columbus was tremendously influenced by Franciscan priests living in Spain. The Franciscans served as his advisors, his encouragers, his confessors, and in many ways his community. In fact, Columbus was a Third Order Franciscan, and he would regularly wear the Franciscan habit. For those who are not familiar, the Franciscan priests and brothers belong to the First Order of St. Francis. Religious Sisters and nuns belong to the Second Order. But there is a Third Order that is reserved for lay people, for men and women who are not called to the priesthood or religious life, but who are drawn to live their faith in the spirit of St. Francis, while remaining in the world, raising families and working regular jobs. It was this Third Order that Columbus was a member of.

As a man of faith, he understood that we were created by God to be with Him forever in eternity, and that the surest path to Heaven has been given to us by Jesus through the Sacraments of the Catholic Church, which Jesus Himself founded. He also understood the importance of Jesus’ commandment to “go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit” (Matthew 28:19).

After his first voyage, Columbus wrote to the Pope six different times requesting missionaries accompany him on his next voyage, a request which was granted. In 2003, the American Jesuit Fr. John Hardon remarked, “It is one thing to say that Columbus discovered America. It is something else to realize that he opened the door to the most phenomenal spread of Christianity since the time of St. Paul.”²

This faithfulness to God’s command impelled our Italian ancestors when they first came to this region. When the first Italian immigrants in the Mahoning Valley founded the parish of St. Anthony, they were dutiful in handing on their faith to their children, which has borne fruit in generations of families in Youngstown and beyond. Between 1904 and 1913, over 2,000 baptisms were recorded at St. Anthony's. In 1913 alone, 286 children were baptized at St. Anthony's and 252 were baptized here at Our Lady of Mount Carmel. This year, our parish has experienced what seems like a significant number of baptisms – we celebrated our 33rd baptism on Sunday, October 11. Imagine what it would have been like to have over 520 baptisms in one year!

In baptizing our children we bring them to the well-spring of life because we believe and have hope in the promise of eternal life that Jesus Christ gave to us. There is no greater gift that we can give a child than a relationship with our Lord. Our ancestors worked hard to make sure we had all we needed not just in this life but also for the life to come and so we do the same for our children.

Great Italian missionaries came to these shores with this shared vision, including St. Frances Xavier Cabrini. In 1889,

The Missionary Sisters in New York City, circa 1890, after three additional Sisters journeyed to the U.S. Mother Cabrini is seated in the center, handing a book to a Sister. We unfortunately do not know which sisters are which!^{1,2}

Congratulations to our 2026 Columbus Day Scholarship Recipients: Grace Bushling, Karly Codner, Riley Good, Gianna Micco, Gina Misel, Gino Pilolli, Marco Pilolli, Rocco Pilolli, Nadia Pipala, Alivia Rydarowicz, Fred Sallmen, Alexander Simon, and Ellianna Volpini.

Mother Cabrini arrived in New York with five Sisters from the community she founded, the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. They came to this country to labor for the Italian immigrants who were struggling against poverty, hatred and mistreatment. Part of their work included the founding of numerous schools for the education of children. The Sisters understood that the children of the Italian immigrants needed an education before they could access the opportunities that this country offered.

Each year at our Columbus Day Celebration, scholarships are awarded to full-time students at Youngstown State University. This year, twelve young men and women received scholarships. These hard-working young adults received their intellect as a gift from God and we gather to support them as they nurture and cultivate it. A well-formed mind, combined with a deep and abiding faith, is a fitting and worthy testament to those who came before us and who sacrificed all they could so that we could be here today. We applaud our young scholars and wish them well, entrusting them and their future to the patronage of Our Lady of Mount Carmel and the intercession of Saint Anthony.

To conclude, most of us will never become canonized Saints, like St. Francis of Assisi or St. Frances Xavier Cabrini. However, it is our hope that like Christopher Columbus and our Italian ancestors, we would be remembered as men and women of great faith and missionary zeal. With our eyes set on our eternal home in Heaven, may we have the courage to share the Gospel with others and to proclaim God's truth whether it is convenient or inconvenient, and whether the teachings of Jesus are in season or out of season in the opinion of this world.
