Celebrating All Souls

All Soul's Day, November 2nd, is an opportunity to remember our friends, relatives and loved ones who have died. Though their absence from us may bring us sorrow, we also rejoice for they have been washed clean in baptism, buried with Christ, and share with us the hope for immortality, through his resurrection. Catholics look on death both as the final statement or act of a precious human life on earth and as the passage to a fuller, final life with the risen Christ in heaven, remembering the phrases, "the sadness of death gives way to the bright promise of immortality "and "life is changed not ended."

For Christians who have "fought the good fight," death is a statement that readies us for eternity. If we live struggling to do right, trying to love, repenting of our sins, trusting in Jesus, then our death is not something to fear.

Msgr. Zuna

Available today on Formed.org:

Eternal Rest: the Art of Dying Well

We all have very real questions about death. Eternal Rest examines the origin of death, the afterlife, and the powerful reality around the sacrament that ushers us into eternal life. Eternal Rest presents the Catholic Church's teaching about death and God's response to it with wisdom and truth, gentleness and compassion, so we can think about and prepare for death in the light of Jesus Christ, the Author of life.

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

BULLETIN for
NOV 1-7, 2026

FR. SCOTT BORBA

COSMETICS KING ORDAINED A PRIEST

Scott Borba seemed to have everything. As a co-founder of e.l.f. Cosmetics, he helped build a globally successful beauty brand. His career brought wealth, red carpets, television appearances, and a glamorous Hollywood lifestyle. But something was missing.

Scott had actually sensed a call to the priesthood as a boy growing up in a Catholic family in California. At age ten, he believed God was asking him to become a priest—but he resisted. "I am not that guy," he remembers thinking.

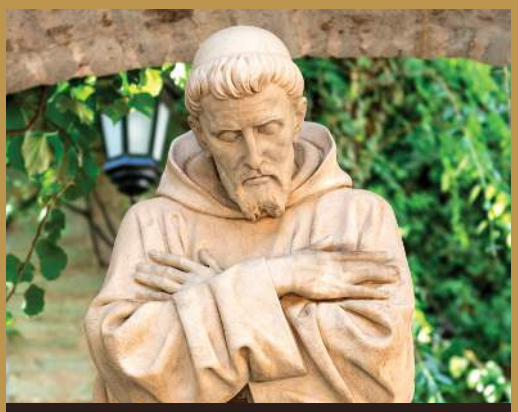

In 2007, Scott Borba published Makeup for Dummies as he worked to build a global skincare brand. In 2021, he left the beauty industry to enter St. Patrick's Seminary in San Francisco and later volunteered with the Missionaries of Charity. In 2026, he was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Fresno, California.

Years later, even extraordinary success could not satisfy him. "I always wanted more," he told CBS News. "It was never satisfying enough."

After the death of his father and a period of deep personal struggle, Borba finally surrendered his life to God. One night, overwhelmed by the direction his life had taken, he prayed for God's help to become the man he had been created to be. That prayer changed everything.

Borba eventually left his former life behind, entered seminary, and was ordained a priest this year. His story offers a powerful reminder: It's never too late to answer God's call.

JUBILEE YEAR ✝ of SAINT FRANCIS

800 YEARS OF SAINT FRANCIS

Few saints have transformed the Church quite like St. Francis of Assisi. The son of a wealthy merchant, Francis walked away from comfort, status, and ambition to embrace a startlingly simple vocation: to live the Gospel without compromise. His captivating witness inspired both men and women to embrace radical poverty for the sake of Christ.

Within years, the Franciscan movement swept across Europe, calling the Church back to poverty, joy, prayer, and love of Christ. Eight centuries later, Franciscans still carry the mission of their founder. Yet Francis himself never set out to build a religious movement; he simply said "yes" to God to embrace a radically simple vocation.

OUR BRAND-NEW PRIESTS

ORDINATION INSIGHTS

While the number of active priests in the U.S. continues to decline due to deaths and retirements, annual ordinations have remained relatively steady for the past three decades—generally between 425 and 515 per year. That stability follows a steep decline from the much higher ordination numbers of the 1960s and 1970s.

This year's CARA survey of the 2026 ordination class offers a revealing portrait of America's newest priests. On average, they first considered the priesthood at age 16 and were ordained at 33. Nearly half (45%) attended a Catholic elementary school, 38% attended Catholic high school, and 34% attended a Catholic college.

Only 7% were converts to the Catholic faith, with 93% baptized as infants. Interestingly, 28% said they have a relative who is a priest or religious.

SPECIAL FEATURE: THE INTERSECTION OF SPORTS & VOCATIONS

SHARING THEIR JOY

THE SUPERFAN SISTERS

The San Antonio Spurs may have the NBA's most heavenly cheering section. For more than 20 years, the Salesian Sisters of St. John Bosco—affectionately known as the "Spurs Nuns"—have worn team jerseys over their habits and cheered from the sidelines. During the 2026 NBA Finals, they even prayed courtside with superstar Victor Wembanyama—and probably prayed for the disappointed fans, as the Spurs went on to lose the finals. For the sisters, basketball is more than fun: their Spurs fandom helps them connect with young people and share the joy of their vocation.

WHITE SOX HONOR POPE LEO

Only in Chicago could a baseball game look like a bishops' conference.

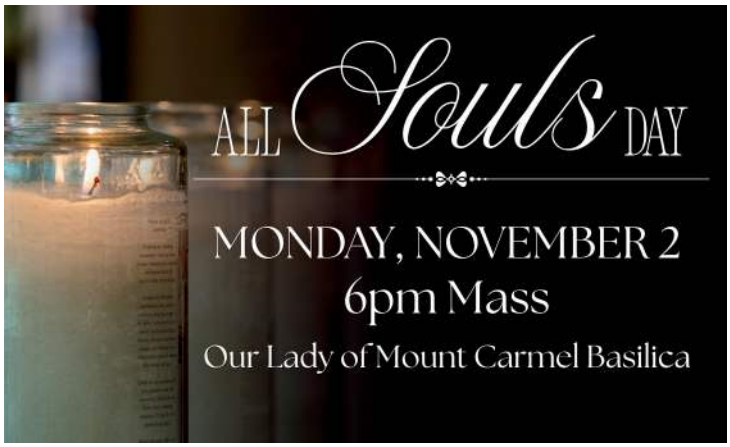

On August 11, nearly 41,000 fans packed Rate Field as the White Sox celebrated their most famous fan: Pope Leo XIV, a Chicago native and lifelong Sox supporter. Fans received black-and-gold "pope hats"—miters emblazoned with the Sox logo—turning the stands into a sea of honorary pontiffs.

Dominican Sister Mary Jo Sobieck threw out the first pitch and the fifth inning featured something rarely seen at a ballpark: a stadium-wide Sign of Peace. The Sox even made a $14,000 donation to the Midwest Augustinian Province, Pope Leo's religious order.

The White Sox lost to Cincinnati—but with 41,000 popes in attendance, perhaps winning wasn't everything.
